

Summary of Changes To Hillsborough County Coastal Management Element GOPs

Goal	Objective	Policy	Moved From	Moved to	Change Type	Comment
1	1	1.7			Agency Review Comment	.... To reduce nutrient loadings into Tampa Bay and its tributaries, scientifically based ecological buffers shall be incorporated into the overall land management strategy. (See Conservation and Aquifer Recharge Element) (Per HCEPC comment)
1	1	1.11			Staff Recommended	Stated goal complete
1	2				Regulatory	Updated per state law & EPC
1	2	2.5			Regulatory	Updated per state law & EPC
1	3	3.2			Administrative	Name change.
1	6				Administrative	Terminology change, correct punctuation
1	6	6.1			Regulatory	Changed per HB 1359
1	6	6.5			Administrative	Correct Grammer
1	10	10.3			Staff Rcommended	Recognition of natural coastal barriers per Hurricane study & PG&M
1	10	10.6			Staff Recommended	Use of advanced technologies per Governor's CHHA Study Commission
1	11	11.3			Agency Review Comment	The County shall maintain capacity on all identified major evacuation routes maintained by the County so that the clearance times as identified by Tampa Bay Regional Planning Council in the most up-to-date Hurricane Study can be maintained. (Recommended by TBRPC.)
1	11	11.5			Agency Review Comment	The County shall continue to conduct an annual review of new development in the Coastal High Hazard Area, and coordinate with the City of Tampa to assure ensure compliance with the Hurricane Evacuation PlanComprehensive Emergency Management Plan (CEMP). (Recommended by TBRPC.)

1	11	11.8	Agency Review Comment	The County, in cooperation with the Tampa Bay Regional Planning Council, shall annually review shelters in an effort to provide shelter space for the worst case hurricane scenario. (Recommended by TBRPC.)
1	11	11.9	Administrative	Reference School District & Red Cross, remove TBRPC per PG&M
1	11	11.10	Staff Recommended	Require demonstration and/or mitigation of shelter space and evacuation capacity
1	11	11.11	Staff Recommended	Encourage private sector disaster plans, per Hurricane Summit & PG&M
1	11	11.12	Staff Recommended	Address inequity of Hurricane Zone regulation/mitigation, per Hurricane Summit & PG&M
1	11	11.13	Staff Recommended	Pursue notification of hazards through real estate transactions, per Governor's CHHA Study Commission
1	11	11.14	Staff Recommended	Per DCA LMS study/report
1	12	12.1	Administrative	Correct terminology/Grammar
1	12	12.4	Agency Review Comment	Any structure or infrastructure within the coastal planning area that is damaged in excess of 50 percent of its most recent assessed value, shall be rebuilt in conformance with all current standards and requirements, including those enacted since the construction of the structure or infrastructure, except as otherwise stated in the Hillsborough County Post Disaster Redevelopment Ordinance (Ordinance 93-20). (Per TBRPC and PG&M, Hazard Mitigation.)
1	12	12.5	Agency Review Comment	If any public structure or infrastructure within the coastal area is damaged in excess of 50 percent of its most recent assessed value, and if the County's post disaster redevelopment ordinance permits development, then the structure or infrastructure must be rebuilt to meet or exceed all current standards and requirements, including those enacted since the construction of the structure or infrastructure.[Reserved] (Per TBRPC and PG&amp;M, Hazard Mitigation.)

*Shaded rows indicated revised text. Revision were made based on agency comments and workshop discussions. These revisions were made following the workshops held with the Planning Commission.